

Villa le Ripe

Villa le Ripe is located in Gambassi Terme, in the province of Florence — a place historically renowned for wellbeing and hospitality. Gambassi Terme has been the centre of a prominent territory since ancient times known for its saline thermal waters and for being an important leg on the famous via Francigena. Gambassi Terme has a typical tuscan historical centre, which still has many medieval buildings, alleyways and breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside where Villa le Ripe is located.

Villa le Ripe is the perfect place to spend a relaxing holiday, surrounded by the green tuscan countryside that dominates the Valdelsa territory and by numerous important cities like Certaldo, San Gimignano, Monteriggioni and Volterra. Villa le Ripe is a farmhouse completely surrounded by the Valdelsa hills. Set in a landscape that offers stunning views, Villa le Ripe features an exclusive swimming pool and four apartments that accommodate anywhere from two to six people.
