

Chianti Classico and San Gimignano

Leave your car at home! A driver will pick you up and drive you to destination!
Go for the easiest and most relaxed daily trip!

Driving to the green hills around Florence, through one of the most suggestive Tuscan landscape, you will reach the heart of the Chianti-shire, land of one of the best worldwide wine: the Chianti Classico.

Here, along the famous wine route Chiantigiana - where the vineyard follows the olive grove and the tiny hilltop town, you'll take a break in Greve in Chianti, the village that gave birth to Giovanni Da Verazzano, the man and explorer who discovered the North American east coast.

To follow, you could join a private visit to a typical farm and a Chianti wine tasting.

Next and last stop, San Gimignano, the so called Medieval Manhattan, the town of the many towers, one of the most popular Tuscan destinations.
