

Weekend walking | The Bollori and the grotto of Maurizio

To fully enjoy the uncontaminated nature of Gambassi, nothing is better than a good hike! Put on your hiking boots and set out in search of hidden treasures among the richly wooded slopes.

Discover the warm springs called the Bollori, the grotto of the cow, and if you are an expert hiker, you can venture from the aqueduct of the Forra to the grotto of Maurizio, discovering the fascinating story of the hermit who lived here at the beginning of the twentieth century.

- Lunch or snack

MEETING POINT

Piazza Giuseppe di Vittorio, 9 - 50050, Gambassi Terme (FI)

9:00 am or 4:00 pm (a half day); 9:00 am (full day)

Saturday and Sunday

- Comfortable clothing suitable for walking, hiking shoes, drinking water

Adults from 7 €

April to October

About 2 hours and a half (a half day), about 6 hours (full day)

Italian, English

2

- Greenbassi membership card
- Guided walk

- The experience may be postponed in the event of poor weather.

- The activity may not be suitable for clients with disabilities
- The half-day excursion is along a section of the Via Francigena with a turn off for the warm springs called the Bollori and the Grotta alla Vacca. It is 3 km and suitable for beginners.
- The full day hike departs from the old aqueduct of the Forra and goes up to the grotto of Maurizio. It is 10 km and is of medium difficulty.
- Number of participants: Min: 2 (half day) / 10 (full day) Max: 20

Prices

Adults: 7€ (half day); 10€ (full day)

Children (up to age 14): free